Fishing Fleet Movements.

Sch. Sceptre was at Hall fax on Monday for bait.

Hungry Gulls.

The sch. Massasoit of Duxbury brought in a queer catch at Boston yesterday morning with her fish, having four mackerel gulls taken on the trawls as the men were fishing off the Isles of Shoals. The fishermen say that these birds when very hungry will dive after the bait on the hooks as the trawls are lowered, and in their eagerness to get some food will take the hooks in their mouths, and remain hooked until the trawl is pulled into the dory.

Big Fare.

Sch. Belbina P. Domingoes, Capt. Domingoes, of the port, was at Boston yesterday with a big fare, 90,000 pounds of fresh fish 50,000 pounds of which were cod. The craft is a shore boat but on this trip Capt. Domingoes went off to Georges and filled up his craft.

Hearing.

The committee on fisheries and game will grant a hearing on the proposed bill to prohibit the taking of fish by nets and seines or any movable device in certain waters of Cape Cod Bay, and Nantucket and Vineyard Sounds, at room 505, state house, on Wednesday, March 22, at 10.30 o'clock.

HERE'S LUCK TO THE FISHERMEN OF GLOUCESTER.

Our old fishing port is awaking to the calls of spring time and is putting her best foot forward by getting in readiness her early spring fishing fleets, the one going for the much needed bank cod, and the other for that dainty and elusive fish, the mackerel, of which we hope to chronicle the catch of many thousand barrels as the result of the season's work. Both of these fleets will be larger than last year as per the list published in Tuesday's Times.

There is a remarkable large number of daring, enterprising skippers now in command of the fleet, some of whom own their vessels and others are large shareholders, and there seems to be no end to their efforts to make a good year's work. These men oftentimes land large trips, are not afraid of trifles and consider no efforts as too great to secure good trips and hit the market when it's on the upward flight.

The year of 1895 upon which we have entered will be characterized by the most persistent efforts on the part of the Gloucester fishermen to make a good year's work. There is a brisk demand for the fish and the Gloucester brands are known all over the country as first-class and to be relied upon. The establishments engaged in the business of putting up fish for the trade have had long experience, and the neatness of their packages of boneless fish, together with the high quality, has secured a large patronage which is constantly increasing. We have the vessels, the wharf facilities, the fine harbor for the prosecution of the fisheries, and the outlook for the season seems most auspicious. Let us hope that good returns will be the result of the labors of the daring voyagers, that they may escape disaster and the end of the season show up a decidedly good balance on the right side of the ledger.

Good Stock.

Sch. Squanto, Capt. Daniel McDonald, stocked $3270 on her recent halibut trip, the crew sharing $81.30.

Sch. Tacoma, Capt. Adelbert Nickerson, stocked $2254 on her recent halibut trip, the crew sharing $52.25.

DIED AT SEA.

Michael Campbell of Sch. Senator Was Ill But Few Days.

A despatch from Halifax yesterday afternoon states that sch. Senator of this port had arrived at that port with the body of Michael Campbell, one of her crew, who died on board the vessel on March 15, after a few days' illness. Campbell was 60 years old and a native of Bras d'Or, C. B.

Campbell was one of the best known of the older fishermen sailing from this port, having followed the fisheries from here for many years. He resided at 41 Mansfield street, where he leaves a widow, a son, Mr. Alexander Campbell and a daughter, Miss Josie Campbell.

The Senator, which sailed from this port March 6 has on board 10,000 pounds of halibut, which will be transhipped here.

WHALES IN CAPE COD BAY.

Herd of Finbacks Seen by Fishing Boats.

A herd of at least a dozen finback whales are in Cape Cod bay and were reported by several Provincetown fishermen on Friday. Capt. Herman Mayo of the boat Little Jennie says he saw at least one dozen blowing at the same moment. The whales show from Race Point clear to the edge of the ice floe off Dennis, and it is supposed they have come from off shore in pursuit of herring.

Big Fresh Fish Fares.

There are several big fresh fish fares at Boston and this port today. Sch. Ella M. Goodwin, Capt. James Goodwin, of this port, has the banner fare, 120,000 pounds of fresh fish and 8000 pounds of halibut.

At Boston, sch. Monarch, Capt. Griffin, of this port has 110,000 pounds of fresh fish and sch. Slade Gorton, Capt. George E. Heckman, has 100,000 pounds. Several vessels have from 60,000 to 90,000 pounds.

Fish Figures.

The report of the U. S. Bureau of Fisheries for the month of February shows that there were landed at this port 1,200,729 pounds of fresh fish, valued at $44,270. and 96,702 pounds of salt fish, valued at $3,919. At Boston for the same month there were landed 5,607,300 pounds of fresh fish, valued at $153,886.

SEINING FOR CODFISH.

Capt. Alden Geel Will Go Again This Spring.

Will Fit the Big Sch. Tattler For His Trip.

Capt. Alden Geel will, in about two weeks, begin to fit sch. Tattler for a codfish seining trip to the grounds in the vicinity of Sable Island.

Last season Capt. Geel went on the same kind of a trip in the sch. Maxine Elliott, that being the first trip of the kind ever engaged in from any United States port.

This bold experiment of Capt. Geel proved a success as far as the working and practicality of the project was concerned and this encourages the captain to try it again this spring.
